

ZOOM OUTLINE
FALL 2022

9/20 "A Still Small Voice" Sermon by Tim Keller

9/27 "I Love My Chocolate, or Do I?"

Ancient Greek, the language of the New Testament had three words for love, no one of which could be used to describe your feelings about chocolate. This session will explore the Greek meanings of love as understood by the New Testament writers.

10/4 Journaling with The Bible

A Presentation by Anita Grant & Denise Clark

10/11 Orchard Africa – Blair Revak, M.D. returns from a local church sponsored mission to Africa on September 27th. Blair will review the work of her local church which has sponsored this mission trip for seven years and tell us of her experience in working with grief and young children in Africa, as well as well as other experiences in her trip.

10/18 Holiday – no class

10/25 The Epistles of John

This two session series will examine the personage of John the writer and the theme of these three brief letters while utilizing the process of journaling or scribing.

11/1 The Epistles of John (continued)

11/8 Passover, The Agape Meal & All Saints Day

11/15 Saul, Pharisee, Persecutor of the Early Followers of the Risen Christ, Apostle and Leading Theologian of the Early Church

These two sessions will explore the Apostle Paul, his writings and legacy.

11/22 Happy Thanksgiving – no class

11/29 The Major Themes of the Old and New Testaments

These sessions will explore the major themes of both Testaments with the intent of showing the continuity of the Biblical witness,

12/6 Major Themes Continued

12/13 The Birth of Jesus as told by Matthew and Mark